Shine a Light Lantern Project Child Protection Week 6-12 September 2020

Over 130 community groups throughout Queensland are running lantern making workshops with kits provided by Hands on Art. We're going to be state-wide lighting lanterns during Queensland Child Protection Week in acknowledgement that protecting children is everybody's business.

This program has been funded by Queensland Child Protection Week with the support of Queensland Government and sponsors including Benevolent Society, Parentline, and the Office of Public Guardian.

BIRDS OF BRISBANE FREE SATURDAY WORKSHOPS

Free drawing and painting workshops for children. A collaborative, local project fostering creative conversations about conservation and local impact. Each week will focus on different birds. Hands on Art will choose a couple of art works over the course of the workshops and these artists will receive a special prize.

Adults Do Art,

Welcome to the art club for adults. We want you to feel welcome, uninhibited and confident to explore, create and play. The Adults Do Art sessions are informal and collaborative. It is all about exploring your creativity and the creative process. It's practical, fun and liberating. Whether you are a beginner or have some art experience we are here to offer tools, techniques and perhaps challenge your thinking to help you find new ways to explore your art. Sessions are Tuesdays from 6:30pm-8:30pm during 2020. For more information or to book a session visit our website.

Kids Do Art School Holidays

Our art sessions will build your child's fine and gross motor skills, individual confidence and independence. We encourage children to explore and experience new sensations and use their imagination
